THE WOMEN ARE TO ATTEND

Indications Are That They Will Be Out in Force —
Other Meetings for Tonight Are Abandoned

All signs point to a splendid mass meeting when George Blackstone Irving opens the campaign for municipal progress in La Crosse at the theater tonight. The event is the one topic of conversation about town today, and when he arrives here this morning Mr. Irving found the city fully awake
to the importance of the movement.

Here are a few things that are worth remembering in connection with the meeting:

You can get tickets at the box office if you have not secured a button.

Women are especially invited
and the success of the meeting
depends largely upon their presence.

The Kreutz-Andre military band begins playing at 7:45.

The address proper begins after the band concert, at 8:15 o'clock.

You have but one engagement tonight. It is at La Crosse Theater. Other
"dates" don't count.

Your "How?" buttons are tickets entitling you to admission. DON'T FORGET THEM
WHEN CHANGING YOUR CLOTHES.

La Crosse, La Crosse! Rah! Rah!
Rah!
La Crosse, La Crosse! Rah! Rah!
Rah!
U-rah! U-rah!
High school! High school! Rah! Rah!
Rah!
What's the matter with Irving?
He's all right, you bet!
Ra-a-a-a-ah!

If the grown-ups at the theater
mass meeting tonight give George Blackstone Irving a reception as rousing as that which burst spontaneously
from about five hundred pupils
at the conclusion of his brief talk
in the assembly room of the La Crosse high school this morning,
there will be evidenced an awakening of enthusiasm for the Gateway
City the like of which has not been equalled in the past in the most optimistic moments of its citizens.

Mr. Irving, at the invitation of Prof. Benezet, talked to the boys
about a lot of things, the vital point
in his discussion being reached when he urged them to ORGANIZE A JU-NIOR BOARD OF TRADE.

Leading up to this he talked to the young people about not "flunking"
in school work, and then finishing unqualified for anything but poor positions, with the sequel that all life
may be filled with failures traceable to the failures begun in school. He

Have we been pulling in op posite directions in our effo rts to help La Crosse? Isn't it time for us to get together and all pull in one direction? What do YOU say?

concluded with repeating the assertion, intended as a psychological "treatment," that "La Crosse is the best city in the world." And right here was where "Junior La Crosse"
rattled the rafters with a "yell"
which Mr. Irving says is the best he ever heard.

Button Girls Are Joy Riding Today.

Chug! chug! chug! (here insert
the gasoline smell.) A big red devil swings by just inside the speed limit,
and you get a glimpse of pretty girls,
all smiles and badges and BUTTONS,
shooting across the city like an invincible army of modern Joan of Arcs charging in the battle of progressive La Crosse. The committee was tickled to death with the work
these young women did yesterday,
and today they furnished them with automobiles. They're going some,
and they'll git ye if ye don't watch out!

They invaded the North side this morning, and were accorded a warm reception and cordial support in that quarter. The members of the Progressive League busied themselves at once, and the sale of buttons is progressing splendidly. The north side is going to do just what it has always done since the business men up there organized the league; it is going to send down a great delegation to support a united La Crosse.

Women Will Come to Cheer the Men On.

Interviews with members of the Twentieth Century club, and other women's organizations, indicates a great attendance of women at the mass meeting tonight. They played a prominent part in the success of the park mass meeting, and it is apparent that they are going to grace the meeting tonight with their presence in equally great numbers. They do not propose that any future movements for the betterment of La Crosse shall degenerate into stag parties, not much.

Societies Postpone Meetings Tonight.

Thursday night meetings of societies and civic organizations are all being postponed to give members a chance to attend the great theater mass meeting. The Franklin club was first to come out with an announcement of the suspension of its weekly debate tonight. Then came the Elks with a similar declaration, and other organizations followed. There are going to be no chances to plead
"prior engagements" of this sort tonight.

MURDERS FAMILY FOR SMALL PLUNDER

Bloodhounds Seek Slayer of McMahons whose Riddled
Bodies Were Found
Near Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 21.—
Bloodhounds today are leading a posse through Wyandotte county, Kansas, in search for the person who murdered Alonzo Van Royen, his wife Margaret, and Mrs. Van Royen's sister, Rose McMahon, whose bodies were found at the Van Royen home
on the Reidy road, five miles west of Kansas City, Kansas. The triple murder is baffling the police. At first their theory was that Van Royen
had killed his wife and sister-in-law
and fled, and it was not until a hunt
of ten hours disclosed his body, that the police concluded that the murders were committed by some other persons. The body of the two women were discovered by their brother, Jas.
McMahon. He went to their home and found the bodies lying on the floor of a room. The authorities were notified and a search for Van Royen began. His body was found near a ravine, about 50 feet from the house. Mrs. Van Royen's body had been pierced by six bullets which,
the authorities say, were fired from a 38 calibre revolver. Three bullets were found in the body of her sister.

News of the murder brought a number of farmers to the scene. With lanterns they searched last night for Van Royen. The body was buried under leaves and was found after midnight. There were two bullet wounds in the body, both in the back.
One bullet passed through the heart.

There were three wounds on Van Royen's face. There is said to have been a visitor at the Van Royen home Tuesday, and it is for him that the officials are searching. James Mc-Mahon says he saw the visitor, a man whom he did not know, talking to Van Royen. He thought the man was buying potatoes.

A diamond ring which Mrs. Van Royen wore was not on her finger
when the bodies were found. Jewelry and money said to have amounted to $700 are also missing.

CZAR FEARS BOMBS FROM AEROPLANES

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—The science of aviation has reached a point where, in the mind of the czar, it calls for police surveillance, and the German aeronautical journal today publishes a decree issued by Nicholas, outlining a strong supervision of aeronautics by the authorities, instituted for fear of the terrorists will take to the airships and drop bombs on Russian officialdom.

PLAYED MARKET AT EXPENSE OF CITY

Further Disclosures as to Woman Leader of Gang
That Robbed Framing-
ham City Treasury

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Oct. 12.—
That a handsome society woman of this town with a penchant for dabbling in stocks, was the center of a gang of grafters, whose steady looting of this town for years has only been exposed in the $300,000
scandal which has shown Town Treasurer John B. Lombard in the role of a forger, is the latest development in the biggest municipal sensational Massachusetts has known for years.

For the utterance of forged notes,
H. S. Cummings and A. E. Meade
of the American Banking company of Boston are under heavy bail. It developed today that for more than ten years all premiums on town notes
have been appropriated by somebody
other than the town and that thousands of dollars have thus been lost to the municipality. Investigation into Framingham's tangled web of finance is said to show that those on the inside knew positively at least as early as last January that Lombard's methods were open to criticism and the suspicion is growing that, as the price of silence, at least some of these shared in the plunder.

Just what role the woman whose name is being mentioned played in the fleeing of the town is not fully known. It is known that she has dabbled in stocks for years and is well known among the brokers of State street in Boston. It is conjectured that, through her gains
from fraudulent notes issued against the town have been used by the gang
of beneficiaries to play the market.
That her efforts have probably netted the gang "big money" is suspected by her frequent boasts, that when she was in the market it was always on the winning side.

Citizens of Framingham today ridicule the plea made by the deposed town treasurer, Lombard, that all his difficulties came from issuing a spurious note to aid a friend and his declaration that the irregular methods when fully probed will show
him to have been but one of a gang
which made thousands on thousands
by using the town's credit to get their capital.

RED WING APPEALS TO I-S. COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—
Forty-two business firms of Red Wing, Minn., today pointed in a complaint to the interstate commerce commission against the Pennsylvania railroad and twenty-five other roads, declaring that they were being compelled to pay unreasonable
rates on freight from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Balti-
more and other eastern points
as compared with rates published by the same roads from the same points to St. Paul,

CAUGHT SELLING INDIANS WHISKEY

John N. Cowley, Bartender, Captured Red-handed by United States Marshal
Here

IS IN JAIL WITHOUT BAIL

Prisoner Carried Tray of Whiskey Into Alley
to Expectant Redskins

Selling liquor to Indians proved no joke to John N. Cowley, residing on lower Pearl street yesterday. As he was emerging from the rear door
of a saloon with a tray laden with whiskey glasses which he was just about to place in the hands of seven expectant redskins last night, he was seized by a United States marshal and caught red-handed in the act of giving the aborigines liquor.

Cowley was taken to the police station and locked up in a cell, where he will be held awaiting action by the grand jury now in session here. If Cowley is convicted he may go to prison for a long term, together with the proprietor of the saloon if it can be proven that he knew that the liquor was being given the Indians.

Called upon the telephone last night, United States District Attorney
George H. Gordon ordered Cowley committed to a cell without the privilege of bail.

Chief of Police John B. Wabser yesterday notified all local liquor dealers through his patrolmen to be exceedingly careful with regard to Indians obtaining liquor. Patrolmen and detectives have been instructed to keep a sharp lookout and report
all violators of the order.

STEADWELL AGAIN PURITY RESIDENT

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. 21.—The early sessions of the National Purity Congress today were devoted exclusively to the election of officers and certain minor changes in the constitution. The name of the organization was also changed to "The American Purity Federation."

The following officers were elected:
President, B. S. Steadwell, La Crosse, Wis.

First vice-president, Rev. Floyd
Tompkins, Philadelphia.
Second vice-president, Judge Ben.
B. Lindsay, Denver.

Recording secretary, Miss Minnie
L. Skinner, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Corresponding secretary, Miss Julia A. Morrow, Spokane, Washn.

Treasurer, Charles A. Mitchell,

KAISER CULTIVATES THE GERMAN STORK

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—A circular issued today by the minister of the interior shows that the kaiser is determined to outdo President Roosevelt in his war against race suicide.
Alarmed because the last census
showed that the German birth rate had fallen off slightly, the kaiser has decided to intervene and the circular issued today declares that Emperor William will act as godfather for the eighty child born in any family.

LAW SENDS MAD WIFE FROM LAND

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Managed in the brig of the French liner La Bretagne, which sailed
today for Havre, is Mrs. Bap-tista Garibaldi, violently insane
because of the baby recently born to her was a girl, whereas the hearts of both herself and husband had been set on a boy.
The husband remains at his home in San Francisco, too poor to prevent his 19 year-old wife from becoming a charge
on the country. His girl baby made motherless by the operation of the immigration laws, remains with him.
Mrs. Garibaldi came from Italy two years ago. She went to San Francisco where she married Garibaldi. The immigration laws provide that an immigrant becoming insane
within two years after arrival
in this country shall be deported.

DUPONT DENIES A POWDER MONOPOLY

"Government Makes It Too," He Tells the Investigating Committee
This Afternoon

TRUST'S CAPITAL $41,601,129

Fifty-one Millions Paid Out in Dividends Since the Reorganization
in 1902

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The government's inquiry into the alleged monopoly of the E. I. Dupont de Nemours Powder company trade of this country, was continued before Referee Wm. G. Mahaffy here today.
Pierre Dupont, treasurer of the concern being cross examined by James Scarlet for the government. Dupont testified that there was no combination to control the powder trade at this time. There had been one in 1904, he declared, known as the gunpowder association and it was discontinued.

Asked if it was not true that the Dupont concern enjoyed a monopoly
of military and ordnance powder
trade, he swore it did not.

"What also manufactures this class of powder?" he was asked.
"The United States government."
"Anyone else?"
"No."

"Does the government manufacture all the powder it needs?"
"No, we sell it a great deal."
"Is there an existing arrangement whereby the Dupont and the American Powder companies compel the 'Winchester Arms Co.' to buy all of its smokeless powder from one or the other of the companies?"
"There is not."

The entire day's session was devoted to inquiry into the manner in which the Dupont company and its branches were organized.

Dupont explained that the powder company has paid out $51,000, 000 dividends since the reorganization in 1902. It now retains a cash balance of $12,000,000.

The total capitalization is $41-601,129, of which $13,601,129 is preferred.

The witness was asked if there are any independent powder companies
in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania and declared there are several.

Asked what he knew of the Connell Powder company agreeing to withdraw from business in that section
witness said:

"Wm. T. Connell sold the business of the Connell Powder company to the Laffin Rand company a few years ago and agreed that he would not again enter into the manufacture of smokeless powder in northern Pennsylvania. We have nothing to do with that transaction."

Witness admitted that stocks and bonds of the New Jersey corporation had been recently sold for upward of three million dollars but he was not asked to explain the details of the transaction.

ILLINOIS WANTS COMMISSION PLAN

ELGIN, Ill., Oct. 21.—A hot fight was precipitated at the opening of today's session of the Illinois Mayors' Association convention when a resolution endorsing legislation which will give Illinois cities the right to adopt the commission form of government was introduced. This subject caused a heated discussion at yesterday's session and the debate was renewed today. The sentiment appeared to favor the adoption of the resolution.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 21.—Mrs.
Priscilla Anderson, aged 18, wife of Hjalmer Anderson, a brewer, died today at Fremont, Neb., after giving birth to an 18 pound girl baby, her

died from a similar case.

BLIND PIGGERS BURN SMALL BOY

Brutally Murder Son of Civic Betterment Worker
at Aneta in Fiendish Manner

POUR OIL ON HIS CLOTHES

Then Ignite Kerosene in Out of the Way Spot in Park
and Leave Him to Death

ANETA, N. D., Oct. 21.—Citizens passing by Aneta park in the middle of the town last night stared transfixed at a flaming figure, running through the streets, trailed by sheets
of fire, out of which issued the terrifying shrieks of a burning boy.

Kenneth, the 12 year old son of Simon McKenzie, butcher, leader of the strong reform association here,
while delivering meat for his father,
had been met in the park by two men, who hurled him to the ground,
poured oil from his own lantern over him and ignited it. The two men fled. The youth rolled over on the grass, leaping to his feet, screamed
at the top of his voice in torture and rushed like a meteor to the street.

Passers by bore him to the ground and quenched the fire. The child had been perhaps fatally burned and was rushed to the St. Johns hospital at Fargo.

On account of the prominence of Simon McKenzie in the fight being waged against the liquor element,
the deed is ascribed to the hatred
and threats of that class against him.

The city improvement association has only been recently formed for the purpose of stopping the alleged blind pig and bootlegging business.
The activity against the lawless element has reached its highest efficiency. It is believed that the men who committed the crime were under the influence of liquor. The father is nearly crazed over the attack
on his son.

MERRY DEL VAL TOOK ANTI-FAT OVERDOSE

ROME, Oct. 21.—Papal Secretary
Merry Del Val is recovering today from the effects of an overdose of an obesity cure which threw him
into violent convulsions last evening.
The pope was much alarmed by the sudden attack which afflicted the secretary. His holiness and Merry Del Val were alone when the secretary dropped to the floor in a series of violent convulsions. The pope hastily summoned the vatican physician,
who succeeded in relieving Del Val
after an hour's hard work.

The secretary had been taking a mixture designed to relieve him of superfluous flesh and Dr. Apecchi said that the violent attack was undoubtedly the result of an overdose
of the preparation.

McCook, and found that she had been garroted and robbed by a negro trusty
during their absence late yesterday.

STYLE

Because nose rings, (some time ago) wasp waists, (in your mother's time) and pinch-stilt shoes, (yesterday) disfigured the woman beautiful, they were done away with—taboored.

Common "hygiene" shoes are not popular for the same reason—they disfigure the appearance of the feet.

The Gotzian Health and Walk Easy Shoe is not clumsy or peculiar, but has graceful style, while it protects the feet from cold and dampness, and is very helpful in walking.

Style emphasis and sanity. All leathers at your dealers—ask him.

Here is a Walking Shoe for women, which has the "soft as a cushion" sole, and yet is light and graceful as a shoe can be made. Ask for No. C8972.

EXPLAINS HOW HE DEFEATED DETROIT

"Babe" Adams Says Tigers Were Unable to Hit His Variated In and Out Drops

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Charles (Babe) Adams yesterday explained

how he defeated Detroit three times, in the world's series.

"My success in pitching can be attributed to the slow drop ball. I discovered in the first game that Detroit could not hit this kind of ball to any extent. When they would connect, it would be a short hit to the infield, and Pittsburgh has an infield which can take care of such hits.

"The slow drop I alternated, first out and then in. It went to the outside of the plate, beyond the reach of the batter, but, if the batsman was within hitting distance the ball was low, and its slowness caused a false estimate of the strength, re-

SPORTS

TRACY NO LONGER AN OUTLAW PLAYER

Reinstatement Means Probable Loss of Harry, who Rightfully Belongs to La Crosse

NOEL TO SPRINGFIELD CLUB

Southpaw Pitcher who Was Released Here is Grabbed by Three Eye Organization

That the local baseball association will probably never receive any money from the disposal of first baseman Harry Tracey was made known in an interview with President Elliott of the Minny League today. Fresno a club in the California State league, which had been an outlaw organization during the summer has been taken in by the national commission. This is the club with which Tracey played during the past season. Financially, it is understood the season was a failure and the league decided to come in under the protection of the national commission. They applied for reinstatement and were successful. Just what the terms were is not known by President Elliott.

Tracey refused to play with the Outcasts at the beginning of the past season and went west where he joined the outlaw club. He was suspended by the national commission but received his reinstatement with the rest of the players. He will now in all probability become a member of that club, without the local association receiving any remuneration whatever from his disposal.

According to the official bulletin which President Elliott received yesterday afternoon, Bruce Noel, the south paw pitcher, who was disposed of to the Oshkosh club of W-L league after a try out here, has been drafted by the Springfield club of the Three Eye league. Noel did some phenomenal work with the Oshkosh team and it was the consensus of opinion among the local fans that the local management erred when they let him go.

"Larby" O'Brien, the manager of the winning Duluth White Sox has signed eight new men for next season. With the addition of the south paw hurler, Howard, the number is increased to nine.

Merle Besser, who played here at times in the old Wisconsin State and W-L league days has been signed by Burlington.

C. R. Kluger the jeweler, 1650 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." quired from the batter. In such a quick feat as batting, a false estimate is a dangerous thing for the batting side. The ball which went inside the plate, and dropped at the same time, was the most effective I used. Detroit could do nothing with that at all.

"But I did not overwork the drop ball. To do so would have been lack of control. Gibson sized up the Detroit batters and we knew when it was safe to put them straight over the plate.

"Detroit has a good batting aggregation, and it was necessary to take every precaution with them. The Tigers' rallies in several games demonstrated this. To lose control during one of these rallies would have meant the loss of the game. The most trying times while I was pitching was when Detroit showed one of those famous spurts of strength at bat. I worked harder than ever, and was fortunate enough to hold control.

"The balls that went straight over the plate were generally hit by Detroit. Occasionally one was walloped to good effect, but in the main we knew when there was to be a hit and the infield and outfield acted accordingly."

The comforter is generally a nuisance.

LA CROSSE TEAM BADLY CRIPPLED

Coach Doseff Does Not Expect to Win Game From the Up River Town School

"We expect to lose but we will give Winona a hard battle" is the prediction of Coach Doseff of the La Crosse High school football team for the game against Winona next Saturday. Brindley, left tackle on the squad, will be out of the game for at least three weeks due to injuries received in the Chippewa Falls game last Saturday and Shirley and Schlabach are also laid up. With these three men out of condition and no strong material to put in their places the La Crosse highs are not counting on a victory in the coming contest. Jacobson of last year's squad has reported for a position and if he regains his old form Brindley's place will be filled but as to who to put in the other vacant positions has not yet been decided by Mr. Doseff.

Every night this week the squad has been put through stiff scrimmage but with such a handicap to the first team the second team men have held their own against the regulars. Tomorrow evening, another scrimmage will take place and Friday the coach will put the men through the entire series of trick plays as it is on open football that La Crosse will try to defeat Winona.

HUGHIE DUFFY NEW WHITE SOX MANAGER

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Hugh Duffy, manager and part owner of the Providence team, will manage the Chicago White Sox next season.

This is the announcement that came from the office of President Comiskey of the White Sox yesterday. Comiskey would not confirm the statement, but Duffy himself made the announcement before he went to Mt. Clemens, Mich., to rest. Duffy declined to state what salary he would get or any of the terms he had agreed upon with Comiskey. He stated, however, that he would manage the team from the bench and would not play.

Duffy expressed the hope that with the wealth of new material he has at hand the Sox will have a winning club next year.

Society is a condition that is largely theoretical.

The Greatest Sanitary Discovery of Modern Times

Which is endorsed by scientists everywhere and is sweeping the country like a whirlwind. It remained for the inventive genius of a wide-awake westerner to devise a sanitary-rubber dropper for eye-tonics. This simple and ingenious little device is made from a special quality of red rubber so soft that it is impossible to injure the eye however unsteady the hand. A slight pressure of the finger releases the exact amount desired and the wastefulness and unsanitary condition caused by the old-style separate glass dropper is a thing of the past.

Several leading eye specialists who are authority on eye tonics have compounded one of the greatest eye remedies known to scientists which is now being put up in conjunction with the Sanitary Dropper and which is known as Eyeaid.

This simple little contrivance is the only Sanitary Rubber Dropper on the market and is sold only in conjunction with Eyeaid. And the little booklet which is being given out by the Sanigenic Company is of great value to those wearing glasses and suffering from eye trouble, as it tells them how to use this simple little remedy in the privacy of their own home with equally as good results as if they were employing a specialist. It is a simple home treatment and is meeting a long-felt want.

The following cut which appears upon their booklet, speaks for itself. It is admitted by oculists and scientists everywhere that Eyeaid and the Sanigenic Company have a great future before them. They are furnishing their booklet upon request.

BASKETBALL TEAM GETTING IN SHAPE

Manager Walker of "High" Team Expects to Get Games with Out-of-Town Teams

Although the football season is on in full blast and the attention of the students at the high school is centered in this game Manager Walker is busy getting a line on the basketball material and also in arranging a schedule of games. Of last year's men there are Bradish, Stavrum and Walker, all of whom are excellent players and with fourteen more men to pick from Alfred (Dutch) Mueller, who has again been hired to coach, ought to be able to pick a championship team. The new candidates are, Keeler, Tiedeman, Shirley, Collins, Shaw, Hyde, Chamberlain, Hundredmark, Brindley, Schlabach, Strum, Jacobson, Ray and Hayes. These men were the stars of the class teams in the inter class series last fall.

Walker expects to arrange the following games with Winona, Sparta, Tomah, Eau Claire, Menominee, Chippewa Falls, Portage, Madison, Alumnus and Y. M. C. A.

With such an abundance of material and schedule of games La Crosse will in all probability have a good chance of capturing championship honors at Appleton at the end of the season.

FINE RECIPE FOR COLDS.

Any druggist can supply these ingredients.

"Mix half pint of good whiskey; two ounces of glycerine; half ounce of Concentrated pine compound. Shake the bottle well each time and use in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful four times a day." This prescription is said to work wonders.

The Concentrated pine is a special pine product and comes only in half ounce bottles each enclosed in an air-tight case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated" in order to get the genuine article.

JOY RIDING COSTS BLACK JACK $100

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, created considerable excitement yesterday by driving through the streets of San Francisco at a terrific pace in an automobile, with a deputy sheriff, in another machine, in hot pursuit. The officer had an attachment against Johnson's automobile to satisfy $100 fees claimed by a local attorney.

The officer finally overtook Johnson, who reluctantly paid the claim and then continued his joy ride. Johnson was accompanied by five negro men.

WINONA TEAM IS CONFIDENT

Winona football players are confident of winning next Saturday's football game from the La Crosse High school football team, and under the careful training of Coach Sandt, they are preparing for the event enthusiastically. A new center has been appointed for Winona, namely Barty, who holds quite a record in that city and a large attendance is assured on this account.

The Winona aggregation was badly walloped at last Saturday's game at Owatonna, the Pillsbury Academy aggregation running all over them.

LABOR'S UPWARD MOVE

In seeking the limitation of the hours of labor for women, organized labor is taking a well defined step upward. To move for legislation which will prevent capital from imposing from twelve to sixteen hours upon women, as a day's labor, is a decidedly beneficial aim.

For the first time in its history the Chicago Federation of Labor has chosen this occasion to ask the co-operation of the churches, an act which marks a further step towards a broader and more humanitarian spirit on the part of labor organizations.

We are very much mistaken in our estimate of the church and its ministers if it is not found that they will gladly respond to a request for co-operation in so humanitarian a movement as the one in question.

The appeal for aid in the benevolent effort to redeem womanhood from the oppression of long hours for short day pay suggests a field of service which has not been diligently cultivated by labor unions.

Labor is degraded and insulted by starvation pay of women and by child labor. The interests of the whole labor world would be more appreciably raised by the abolition of the sweat shop system than by any one thing.

The labor federations of America could in a very short time put the labor sharks out of business. The workers at the bottom of the ladder need only be assured of the help of their stronger brothers and they would quickly win the battle for themselves while the courts of every state would sustain an attack upon the slavery of child labor.

MR. CROMWELL'S "LIBEL"

In the brief opinion in which he declined to permit the extradition of the publishers of the Indianapolis News for alleged libel in connection with charges concerning the Panama canal deal, in which the government sought to have Delavan Smith and his associates tried in Washington, Federal Judge Anderson has relieved newspapers from all necessity for analysis or discussion, his argument being lucid and his deductions incontestable.

"I am of the opinion," said Judge Anderson, "that the fact that certain persons were called 'thieves' and 'swindlers' does not constitute libel per se. A newspaper has a certain duty to perform. As a former president had said: 'It is the duty of a newspaper to print the news and to tell the truth about it.' It is the duty of a newspaper to draw inferences for the people.

"Now, there were many peculiar circumstances about the whole Panama canal business. I do not wish to be understood as reflecting upon anybody in or out of office, except such person or persons as I may name.

"The revolution in Panama, the circumstances concerning it, were unusual and peculiar. The people were interested in the construction of the canal. It was a matter of great public concern; a large portion of the people favored the Nicaraguan route; another portion, those who were interested in it, officially and personally—just interested—preferred the Panama route.

"A committee was appointed to investigate the relative merits of the two routes. They investigated and reported in favor of the Nicaraguan. Shortly afterwards they changed to Panama.

"Up to the time of that change, as I gather from the evidence, the lowest offer which had been suggested as the one at which the Panama property—the property of the Panama Canal company—could be procured was something over $100,000,000. Then suddenly it became known that it could be procured for $40,000,000.

"Now, there were a number of people who thought there was something wrong—something not just exactly right—about that transaction, and I say for myself that now I feel a natural curiosity to know what the real truth was.

"Thereupon the committee of the United States senate was appointed to investigate these matters—about the only way it could be investigated. The committee met, as stated in these articles, these men 'who knew all about it.' I think that is the proper way to speak of William Nelson Cromwell.

"Well, these men were called before the committee, and Mr. Cromwell, upon having certain questions put to him, stood upon his privilege as an attorney and refused to answer. That was the state of the case, as shown by the evidence, when we adjourned last June.

"At this session of court certain parts of the records showing the proposition before the senate have been introduced by the government and the impression made upon my mind from such parts as the government saw fit to introduce is not more favorable to Mr. Cromwell's position than it was upon the former hearing.

"So far as the record has been read, Mr. Cromwell stood upon his privilege whenever questions were asked the answer to which would or might reflect upon him or his associates; but whenever a question was asked him which gave him an opportunity to say something in their behalf, he ostentatiously thanked the examiner and proceeded to answer. To my mind that was a just basis for suspicion. I am suspicious about it now.

"So we have the situation. Here is a matter of great public concern. I was interested, you were interested, we were all interested. Here was a newspaper printing the news—or trying to. Here was this matter up for discussion, and I am not willing to say that the inferences were too strongly drawn. I am not approving them; I am simply saying that I am not able to say they were too strongly drawn.

"Now, if that is the situation, the question is, did these defendants under the circumstances act honestly

How to Nip a Cold or Cough in the Bud

To let a cold or cough "wear itself out" is both needless and dangerous. If you will take five minutes and make up the simple remedy described below, you can wipe out a cold or cough as soon as it appears. Even deep-seated coughs yield to it very quickly. A whole pint of it costs only 54 cents, but there is no better remedy at any price.

Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. The taste is pleasing.

Use the ingredients as given here. Granulated Sugar makes the best syrup. None of the weaker pine preparations will take the place of the real Pinex itself, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract. Your druggist has it or can easily order it for you.

This mixture is also excellent for whooping cough, bronchitis, chest pains, etc.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

in the discharge of this duty which I have spoken of, which the law recognizes, and were they actuated by a desire to injure the persons who are affected by their act. If it were necessary to decide this case upon the question of privilege or lack of malice, I would hesitate quite a while before I would conclude it was my duty to send these people to Washington for trial. But that is not it.

"This indictment charges these defendants with commission of a crime in the District of Columbia. Now, the constitution of the United States, in one of the amendments, provides that the accused shall be tried in the state or district where the offense is committed.

"The Indianapolis News is owned by these defendants, conducted and published by them, printed by them in the city of Indianapolis, state of Indiana. At the time covered by this indictment it had a daily circulation of about 90,000 copies.

"All but about 2,000 were circulated and disposed of in the state of Indiana, some 400 or 500 more in one or two of the adjoining states, and to the District of Columbia there were sent by mail about fifty copies to subscribers, persons who ordered them sent. The defendants have no agent, or bureau, or office, and maintain no agent, or bureau, or office in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, for the circulation of papers within that district.

"So the question, Do the defendants, when they prepare and publish fifty copies in the city of Indianapolis and deposit them in the United States mail in this building, to be transmitted by mail to fifty subscribers in Washington—do they publish those fifty copies in Washington? If they do, if they did, the court has jurisdiction of the offense. I will not go so far as to say that it has of the defendants. But if they did not, then the court has neither jurisdiction of the offense or the defendants.

"To my mind there is but one conclusion to be drawn. Everything that the evidence shows that defendants do or did they do and did in the state of Indiana, city of Indianapolis, county of Marion. I am not here to say that if these defendants had an agent in Washington to whom they sent for circulation copies of this paper, that they might not be amenable to prosecution in Washington, if they could be arrested in Washington.

"To my mind that man has read the history of our institutions to little purpose who does not put little valuation on the possible success of evidence such as this. If the history of liberty means anything, if the constitution means anything, then the prosecuting authority should not have the power to select the tribunal if there be more than one to select from, at the capital of the nation, nor should the government have the power to drag citizens from distant states there for trial."

"Who sold liquor to the Indians?" From the attitude of some of the witnesses before the grand jury now in session in United States court it must have been some wholesaler.

A few days ago it was the Cook-Pearry controversy. Now the question is, did Count de Lambert circle the Eiffel tower?

Veterans' Longest Engagement At the Army and Navy club in Washington one evening a group of officers, most of them young men, were swapping stories of various engagements during the war with Spain and the subsequent troubles in the Philippines.

Among the silent listeners was one grizzled veteran, a naval commander of national renown. It must have occurred to one of the young men that it was peculiarly ludicrous that officers not long out of the academies should be holding forth with respect to their exploits, while this old fellow sat silent in a corner. So, turning to the veteran, one of the young officers blithely asked:

"What is the longest engagement you ever participated in, admiral?"

"It lasted three years," said the old chap, without a suspicion of a smile, "and, worst of all, the young woman married another man."

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY

A Clinical Preparation That Positively Kills the Dandruff Germ

A most model discovery has been made after a year's patient laboratory work aimed in a certain direction—It is Newbro's Herpicide, a preparation that prevents falling hair, and speedily and permanently eradicates dandruff. These evils are caused by a germ or parasite that burrows into the scalp, throwing up dandruff, as it seeks to sap the life of the hair at the root. There's no baldness without falling or thin hair, no thin hair without dandruff, and no dandruff, if the germ is destroyed. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that will do the work. "Destroy the cause, you will remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Hoeschler Bros. Special Agents.

"A Pair of Country Kids"

"A Pair of Country Kids," a rural comedy drama, is the play announced at the La Crosse theater, Oct. 23, and from all reports that have reached Manager Gage the country kids are a lively pair and seem to be making a large number of friends everywhere. The play is highly spoken of as a clean up to date rural comedy drama, true to nature and with all those lovable folk "down on the farm" that we all remember after we have moved to the city, or that we meet every day where we have been content to remain close to nature with the homespun folks. This company is made up of real actors who can act, sing and dance and will give you an evening of genuine amusement and you will surely laugh at the kids for they are busy constantly getting in and out of mischief.

Sunday Attraction

It would seem as if every one who has read Mrs. Mary J. Holmes' delightful character sketch of men, women and manners in the beautiful south, called "Lena Rivers," would want to see the work in dramatic shape. In dramatic shape it has been placed and its success has bordered on the extraordinary. This is not at all wonderful, for the story has been exceedingly popular for the past fifty years and the dramatization made of it has proved extremely clever and satisfying. Burton Nixon will present the play at the La Crosse theater next Sunday, Oct. 24, giving it with a carefully selected cast and with a production that is all that could be desired. The dramatization was made with very few liberties, and all the characters, incidents and scenes that have made the book so popular will be found upon the stage. The play is divided into four acts and the scenes take place in Slocumville, Mass., and in the sunny south, near Frankfort, Ky. All the characters of the book are in the play and so are a great many of the good lines and odd sayings which caused the readers so much enjoyment.

WARDEN JOHN FRANCIS

PITTSBURG.—Conditions at the western penitentiary have been declared so unsatisfactory that preparations will be made shortly for the removal of all the 21 federal prisoners.

McGlason of the department of prisons and prisoners has reported to Attorney General Wickersham that 300 of the inmates of the institution are victims of tuberculosis, that half the prisoners are kept idle at all times, that the cells are infested with vermin, that two men are forced to occupy one small cell and that the quality of foods has caused universal complaint.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Rejected! That's what! Thrown down by a girl
With ruby lips and a wayward curl
That swings from a forehead of purest white,
That would hide her beautiful eyes from sight!
Refused! And refused by a winsome thing
That's sweeter than songbirds when they sing—
A girl who should smile wore a fretted frown
And dropped me—rejected me—threw me down!

She threw me down! Ye gods, what a blow!
She threw me down! What a terrible throw!
Rejected me! And I never had dreamed
That she could reject, who so smilingly beamed!

A picture of beauty—the kind of a girl
That would set the head of a priest in a whirl!
With rosebud lips and with pearly teeth
And a bosom that seemed to have heart beneath!

And yet she smiled—yes, she even laughed!
And come to remember, I think she chafed
And joked with me, ere she frowned the frown
That settled the thing, when she threw me down!

Yet this was not a man's fate that slipped,
For I am only a manuscript—
And she reads for the editor, you see,
To approve or reject—she rejected me!

To Weep on One Handkerchief

Two of the prettiest nurses at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic hospital are bosom friends. Dolly and May (to inject a little fiction in a true story) attended together a performance of their favorites, the Orpheum stock company.

So far nothing unusual, but at the rising of the first curtain it was discovered that the friends had but one handkerchief between them. And, alas! the play was sad.

One bit of lace and muslin to stem a leak in the dykes, to stay the bursting floodgates! But let Dolly relate the harrowing experience.

"Oh, but the play was sad! We never had such a good cry in all our lives—I mean such a bad cry, for what can two poor girls do with only one handkerchief?"

"First May began to sniffle, and in about a minute the poor little hanky was all wet. Then I started to fill up and snatched the handkerchief from May and dabbed my eyes with it."

"Just then, at the saddest part of the play, where Ingersoll takes her in his arms and—well, anyhow, I took one corner of the damp thing and May took the other and we blubbered together."

"Gracious! I wouldn't go through such an unsatisfactory cry again for the world."—Philadelphia Times.

Wasted on the Air

"You look sweet enough to kiss," says the impressed man.

English as She Is Spoke

The teacher of "conversational French in a certain eastern college was a lively mademoiselle "just over."

One bright afternoon she stopped two girls very excitedly. She wanted to buy an "eponge pour la bain," but did not know what to ask for.

"Bath sponge. Tell the salesman you want a big bath sponge to take home with you," said the girls in chorus, and they accompanied her to the village drug store.

A young clerk stepped forward. Mademoiselle advanced bravely. "Please," she said, smilingly, "will you kindly take me home and give me a big sponge bath?"—William C. Bennett in Success.

The Vacation of the Griggs

Griggs had been in the office all summer. He had seen his fellows leave for their lawful two weeks, and had heard with some exactness, the cheerful words used to greet them when they came back. When, therefore, the day came to greet Griggs, this is what was written and hung by him as a sign upon his desk:

Yes, I've been away on my vacation.

Yes, I had a good time.

Yes, the weather was fine.

Yes, I'm glad to get back.

Yes, the first day is always the hardest.

As he pondered for a moment, a messenger rode into the grounds, and Miss Osborne slipped away and met the boy at the steps. She came back and opened a telegram, reading the message at one of the windows. An indignant exclamation escaped her, and she crumpled the paper in her hand.

"The impudence of it!" she exclaimed. He had risen, and she now turned to him with anger and scorn deepening her beautiful color. Her breath came quickly; her head was lifted imperiously; her lips quivered slightly as she spoke.

"This is from Governor Dangerfield. Can you imagine a man of any character or decency sending such a message to the governor of another state?"

She watched him as he read: "The Honorable Charles Osborne, Governor of South Carolina, 'Columbia, S. C.'"

"Have written by tonight's mail in Appleweight matter. Your vacillating course not understood."

"William Dangerfield, Governor of North Carolina."

"What do you think of that?" she demanded.

"I think it's impertinent, to say the least," he replied guardedly.

"Impertinent? It's the most contemptible, outrageous thing I ever heard of in my life! Governor Dangerfield has dilly-dallied with that case for two years. His administration has been marked from the beginning by the worst kind of incompetence. Why, this man Appleweight and his gang of outlaws only come into South Carolina now and then to hide and steal, but they commit most of their crimes in North Carolina, and they always have. Talk about a vacillating course! Father has never taken steps to arrest those men out of sheer regard for Governor Dangerfield; he thought North Carolina had some pride, and that the governor would prefer to take care of his own criminals. What do you suppose Appleweight is indicted for in this state? For stealing one ham—one single ham from a farmer in Mingo County, and he's killed half a dozen men in North Carolina."

She paced the corner of the veranda angrily, while Grissold groped for a solution of the problem. The telegram from Raleigh was certainly lacking in diplomatic suavity. It was patent that if the governor or North Carolina was not tremendously aroused, he was playing a great game of bluff, and on either hypothesis a prompt response must be made to his telegram.

"I must answer this at once. He must not think we are so stupid in Columbia that we don't know when we're insulted. We can go through the side door to father's study, and write the message there," and she led the way.

"It might be best to wait and see what his letter is like," suggested Grissold, with a vague wish to prolong this discussion, that he might enjoy the soft glow of the student lamp on her cheek.

"I don't care what his letter says; it can't be worse than his telegram."

She paced the corner of the veranda angrily, while Grissold groped for a solution of the problem. The telegram from Raleigh was certainly lacking in diplomatic suavity. It was patent that if the governor or North Carolina was not tremendously aroused, he was playing a great game of bluff, and on either hypothesis a prompt response must be made to his telegram.

"I must answer this at once. He must not think we are so stupid in Columbia that we don't know when we're insulted. We can go through the side door to father's study, and write the message there," and she led the way.

"It might be best to wait and see what his letter is like," suggested Grissold, with a vague wish to prolong this discussion, that he might enjoy the soft glow of the student lamp on her cheek.

"I don't care what his letter says; it can't be worse than his telegram."

IMPROVEMENTS IN "Q" TRAIN SERVICE

Time will Be Cut and Cars will Be Improved on the Long Pacific Coast Run

It has not been very long since Burlington Route commenced running through trains from Chicago via St. Paul to the North Pacific coast, and already the through traffic has so materially increased that it has been necessary to arrange for improved service.

The Burlington runs two through trains every day from Chicago to Seattle and Tacoma via the St. Paul—one the Oriental Limited over the Great Northern, the other the Northern Pacific Express via the Northern Pacific from St. Paul. Both are solid electric-lighted through trains to Puget Sound, but hereafter these trains will also be solid through trains to Portland the Portland equipment consisting of through standard and tourist sleeping cars and observation car from Chicago, running over the new North Bank road from Spokane to Portland, so-called because for fully half the distance it follows the north bank of the Columbia river. This is the most recently completed line in the west and is said to be the best built railroad in the country, with a maximum curvature of three degrees and a maximum grade of two-fifths of one per cent. It is also said to be the most picturesque line in the entire northwest.

The line from Chicago to Portland, under the new arrangement, will be seventy-two hours—three days—the same as the time to Puget Sound at the present time.

The Oriental Limited will continue to leave Chicago at 10:15 p. m. as at present, and the Northern Pacific Express will leave at 10:00 a. m. instead of 9:20 as heretofore, arriving Portland 8:00 a. m. the third morning thereafter. Both these trains are magnificently equipped with every comfort and convenience for the traveler.

Another important change, that the Burlington will make on the same date is the quickening of its time from Chicago to Denver for the Colorado Limited, which leaves Chicago at 9:45 a. m. and now reaches Denver at 4:15. Under the new schedule it will arrive at Omaha 11:20 p. m. same day and Denver 2:15 p. m. next day—two hours faster than at present.

Another decided improvement which will be appreciated by travelers between Kansas City, St. Joseph and Omaha is the fact that cafe-club cars are being put on all day trains so that all meals will be served on board the trains instead of passengers being required to get their meals at eating stations en route as heretofore.

Another important change, that the Burlington will make on the same date is the quickening of its time from Chicago to Denver for the Colorado Limited, which leaves Chicago at 9:45 a. m. and now reaches Denver at 4:15. RAILROADERS JOLLY A WEDDING PARTY

William Roberts, for the past six years a passenger brakeman on the La Crosse division of the Milwaukee road, has come to the conclusion that this city is a good place to keep clear of on a wedding trip.

Mr. Roberts was married Tuesday afternoon to Miss Rosella Altman, at the home of the bride's parents in Milwaukee, and arrived here on No. 5 last evening. Their coming having been tipped off in advance, the young couple were given a reception by the groom's fellow employees at the Hotel Jefferson last night, when practical jokes of every nature were played upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will continue their wedding trip today, leaving for Minneapolis on fast mail train No. 55. They will be gone about five days and will then return to Milwaukee, where they will make their future home.

TRINITY TO BURN MORTGAGE SUNDAY

IS BADLY HURT BY SAWING MACHINE

Walter Grabhorn, 1913 South Sixteenth street, was seriously injured yesterday at the plant of the Voic-Berger company, while feeding a board into the rotary saw. Some object got behind the saw, causing the board to fly back with terrific force, striking Mr. Grabhorn in the abdomen. He is now at the La Crosse hospital and his condition is regarded as serious.

The intestines are said to have been ruptured by the force of the blow, resulting in a case of general peritonitis. The injuries were not at first considered serious.

The young men say the poor girls are always more affectionate than the rich ones.

"BRAKIES" ASK INCREASED WAGES

Western Switchmen Demand an Increase of 6 Cents an Hour; Meet at St. Paul

The switchmen all over the entire west are demanding an increase of 6 cents an hour and the wages more nearly equalized. The reason for this demand seems to be the enormous business which the roads are doing in this section of the country.

The present scale of the switchmen on all the northwestern roads is: Night foremen, 37 cents an hour; day foremen, 35 cents; night helpers, 34 cents; and day helpers, 32 cents.

The switchmen demand that these wages be equalized, but Superintendent Myers of the Milwaukee road and the Twin City terminals stated yesterday that the roads have always held that a night man should receive more wages than a day workman.

The general opinion on both sides is that there is little danger of a strike, as this would result in a tie-up of practically all the roads between here and the Pacific coast. The Switchmen of North America is recognized as one of the most powerful organizations in the country, and it is probable that an increase will be granted. It is expected that the demands of the men will be settled at a joint conference of roads and the men.

If the increase is granted it will affect the switchmen of the Milwaukee here as well as those of the other roads.

At a recent mass meeting of the switchmen they requested that the managers of the various roads meet them at St. Paul, November 15. It is expected that the matter will be settled then.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 35 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

TRAINMEN TO HANDLE MAIL AND EXPRESS

Because of laxity among employees of the Milwaukee road during the past three weeks, passenger trains have been late at various times. Bulletins to the effect that brakemen must help to handle mail and baggage and that conductors must get their orders to the engineer as rapidly as possible were posted in local offices this morning.

The express companies at St. Paul have been notified to have enough help at the stations to handle express with the admonition that if it is not taken off the trains in the time allowed for it, the train will leave without the remaining express being taken off at that point. Brakemen have been ordered to help as much as possible at the St. Paul station.

During the past three weeks the trains have been late on many different occasions and it is claimed that the unwillingness of the trainmen to assist each other is the cause.

OPTICAL AUTHORITIES

All optical authorities agree in advising glasses for children who have optical defects.

There are some objections of course, but thoughtful comparison of the advantages and disadvantages produce overwhelming evidence in support of the glasses.

PADEREWSKI'S FIND STOPS IN CHICAGO

Donald Johnson Tells of His Ambition and Is Snapped by Newspaper Artist

Donald Johnson the Centerville lad to be educated by Paderewski, passed through Chicago on Tuesday enroute to New York, and while there was interviewed and photographed by the Inter Ocean. That paper has the following to say regarding the young man:

"Donald Johnson, the one-handed boy of Centerville, Wis., who is to receive a musical education as the protégé of Ignace Jan Paderewski, passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to New York city, where he will immediately begin studying in the Damrosch Institute of Musical Art under the tuition of Sigmund Stojowski, the personal representative of Paderewski in America.

"In his pocket the Wisconsin boy proudly carried a letter which he received last week from Paderewski, who is now in Switzerland. The letter contained funds for the expense of the boy's trip to New York.

"You must be prepared to stay two years," wrote Mr. Paderewski, "and during that time I will contribute expenses for your living. Your instruction will be free."

Finds Little Art in Village

"It is the proudest moment of my life. I never dreamed of a career," declared the boy yesterday. "I do not think the people in our town understand much about art. My father has only a little store in this country town, where there is not even a railroad. He has been too poor to give me a musical education or much of an opportunity to hear the great artists.

"When Mr. Paderewski came to La Crosse I only hoped that he would hear me. I thought if he could hear me play there would be a satisfaction—in fact, the greatest satisfaction for which I had ever hoped—in having my music understood."

Young Donald for the great event of his life had secured one of the best seats in the theater, where he could hear the pianist to the best advantage. He was there early, and before the entertainment commenced sought the coveted attention of Paderewski.

Mrs. Paderewski Takes Pity on Him

"The famous musician, however, was not in a mood to hear poor, uneducated country boys play the piano—much less a lad with only one hand. When he turned, scowling and shaking his head with impatience, Donald's face whitened. He had staked a lot and lost.

"Blind with tears and disappointment, he staggered out of the theater. His friends sought to comfort him, but he had cast them off and begged to be left alone. Down the street he walked by himself, not knowing why or whether he was going.

"Presently there was the sweep of a skirt at his side and a hand touched him gently on the shoulder. The touch nearly overcame him, for he had been trying manfully to master the grief and sobs that were swelling in his throat. He had only wait-

MILK INSPECTION IS A DEAD LETTER

Dr. McKillip Claims Cows Are Being Brought in Without the Inspection

Dr. McKillip, veterinarian, declares that the milk inspection ordinance over which so much fuss was raised some time ago, is not being enforced. He declares it has been in force for two years, but that cattle were not inspected and tested last year as required, nor are they being inspected now. He asserts that new stock is being brought into the city from Minnesota and that the milk is being disposed of without the stick being inspected.

TELEGRAPHERS SEEK RAISE

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Telegraph operators of all big railroad systems operating out of Chicago, particularly those using telephones have petitioned for material increases in wages. Grievance committees representing the order of Railway Telegraphers are now in Chicago conferring with officers of half a dozen lines including the Northwestern, Illinois Central, Burlington and Milwaukee.

Apply morning and night, rubbing until absorbed; then wash with hot water and soap; dry thoroughly. Continue a few weeks and beautiful development rewards the effort.

ALFRED JAMES GETS FRANKLIN AUTOS

Mr. Alfred James has signed with the H. H. Franklin Manufacturing company as the dealer to handle Franklin automobiles in this city during the season of 1910.

The Franklin cars for 1910 are being made in sixteen models besides trucks. The output from the factory for the coming season has already begun. As has been the case with the Franklin from its beginning the engine is air-cooled. There is in the method of the air-cooling a modification which produces a marked increase in efficiency.

A laminated wood chassis frame, full-elliptic springs, large tires and an aluminum body continue to be characteristics of the Franklin. Combined they are productive of two features—light weight and easy riding. The cars are of three horse-power ratings, 42, 28 and 18, and include touring cars, runabouts, close-coupled body cars, limousines, landaulets, town cars and taxicabs.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

MT. CARROLL THIEF NOT LA CROSSE MAN

Gang of Horse Thieves Is Working South of Here,
But Palmer's Rig Is Not Found

Sheriff William Duncan this morning received information from Mt. Carroll, Ill., that the man arrested there for the theft of a horse in North Dakota does not answer the description of the La Crosse horse thief.

It is apparent to the authorities that a regularly organized gang of horse thieves is operating in southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois.
Thiefs have been reported almost daily, and in every instance the thief
or thieves have escaped.

A man claiming to be a traveling cigar maker walked into the livery stable of R. L. Henderson at Savanna, Ill., a few days ago and engaged
one of the finest teams in the barn.

He has not been heard from since.
Last Friday night a horse was stolen at Freeport and Sheriff Miner of that county offers a reward of $25
for the apprehension of the thief.

On October 18, a team was stolen
at Whitewater, Wis. A reward of $100 has been offered by the president of the vigilance committee of that place, but no trace has been heard of the thief or team. John Ridge, owner of the animals, has sent out the following description of them: Bay in color, weight about 2,400 pounds, both geldings, one a

CHAS. BEYSCHLAG,
Druggist, 503 Main St.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HOPKINS RESENTS POLICE ATTITUDE

Says He was Abused by the Drummer who had Tried Before to Sneak Without Paying

J. C. Hopkins, proprietor of the Hopkins Transfer line, resents the interference of police in his business affairs yesterday when he held up the trunk of a traveling man to collect 75 cents he claimed to be due upon it, but which the salesman declared he did not owe.

"It seems queer to me that the police should accept the word of a stranger, without even asking for my side of the story," said Mr. Hopkins today. "The impression was given out that I was charging this man 75 cents for a single trunk. The fact is that he owed me for two prior to the present one, and made a practice of getting away without paying me.

"In March last he declined to pay for a haul. He did it again in June, and at that time I warned him I would collect my money. I did so, in spite of the unwarranted interference of the police. Had they a right to interfere, it could only have been on the ground that I was breaking the law, and then their duty would have been to arrest. They did not attempt to arrest me, and after the man had seen the district attorney, he paid me."

WILLING RE-ENTERS CLOTHING BUSINESS

John E. Willing, Jr., who several years ago conducted a clothing and shoe store in La Crosse, will again embark in business here and to get acquainted with his former customers and patrons will begin by giving a monster sale.

Mr. Willing announces today that he has purchased the entire stock of the Westby Clothing company on South Fourth street and in order to make room for his brand new stock which has been ordered from the east and is expected to arrive in a few weeks, he proposes to clean out all of the Westby goods at bargain figures. The prices will be cut down to the lowest figures so as to dispose of all of the goods before the beginning of the new year when Mr. Willing expects to have all of his new stock in.

The large experience which Mr. Willing has had in the clothing and furnishing line is well known by La Crosse citizens who greatly regretted his action when he sold out his store here a few years ago. He will be welcomed back into business in this city by all of his old friends, who predict great prosperity for the store.

WHITE AND BLACK TO INTERMARRY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 21.—"Eventually the negroes and whites will intermarry," declared Prof. Albert E. Jenks of the department of sociology of the university of Minnesota, who addressed the members of the Social Service club at the opening meeting of the year last night.

"I don't like the idea. Are any of you women open to proposals of marriage from negroes? Yet in spite of our prejudice against the black man, amalgamation is going on rapidly. Especially is this true in the south, notwithstanding the laws.

"The black man is here and it is impossible to remove him. Without legal marriage the races are mixing. It is the white man's fault. In the due course of time, negro blood will flow in the veins of white men. I hope it won't get into the veins of my children. True, disease is killing the negro off. This is the solution that I am hoping for. But it is not possible for the blacks and whites to live here separately. While the negro is here, it is our duty to make his life the best that it can be."

IRVING ADDRESSES HIGH SCHOOL TODAY

The students at the high school had the pleasure of listening to Geo. Blackstone Irving, the noted municipal doctor, who is to speak at the La Crosse theatre this evening, in a short talk this morning.

Mr. Irving impressed on the students the necessity of a college education and said that every student could acquire a college education if he or she were determined to do it. According to statistics a man or lady with a college education has 610 chances to one of succeeding in the battle of life that the person with an ordinary education has.

Mr. Irving told several stories and these proved very interesting to the students of the institution. After the address several high school yells were given.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 21.—A man who said he was Schlatter, the alleged divine healer, who created such a furore throughout the west twelve years ago, died in the county hospital at Hastings, Neb., today. The man was found penniless and ill a week ago. Before his death the man declared his real name was Rev. Charles McLean of Ohio. Schlatter had toured fully twenty western states and from his long hair and beard bore a remarkable resemblance to pictures of the Christ.

SLEUTHS PROWLING DRAWS OUT FORCE

Hurry Call Sent to Police Station when Detectives Make Commotion Behind Store

Since public criticism began to make berths in the La Crosse police department uncomfortable, the head of the department has begun taking his subordinates to task and the vigilance of the patrolmen and especially the detectives is recommended.

Chief Webber has ordered his detectives to stay on duty until midnight hereafter instead of going home at 9 o'clock as formerly, and has issued instructions for the patrolling of alleys in the downtown business district.

The detectives usually travel in pairs, so as to be able to cope with any marauder they come across and it was this fact that Tuesday night caused considerable commotion in the rear of the Nicholson-Scott store on Main street.

Detectives McGrath and Yoltan went back into the alley at the rear of the store to make their usual nightly investigation. Yoltan had his electric light, but McGrath carried none. Waitresses at Schrank's cafe on the other side of the alley saw the two detectives go back into the alley.

They had been gone but a moment when the waitresses were startled by hearing cries of "Joe," "Oh, Joe," come from the darkness. They saw a form moving about in the dusk but the calls continued and seemed to grow louder.

The girls did not hesitate. Fearing that their friends, the "coppers," had fallen in with a bad "bunch," they were being foully murdered, they called central station and in a few minutes half a dozen husky patrolmen were on the scene. All they found was Yoltan and McGrath. McGrath had gotten lost in the darkness and in searching for him Yoltan had called his name louder than he was aware. There was a happy reunion and the coppers "scattered."

SPANISH CABINET DEPOSED BY KING

MADRID, Oct. 21.—After a determined struggle against opposition not only in Spain but in all of Europe, aroused by Spanish conditions, the cabinet headed by Premier Maura resigned today by the express demand of King Alfonso. The Moroccan war, the anti-clerical situation, and the world-wide protest following the execution of Francisco Ferrer, and the Barcelona riots were the primary causes of the resignation.

The resignation of the cabinet throws Spain in a condition bordering on chaos. A competent statesman willing to accept the responsibilities and difficulties of the situation will be hard to find.

King Alfonso faces the crisis of his life, for upon his choice depends the fate of his throne.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET SATURDAY NIGHT

At last past six Saturday night a banquet will be served at the Y. M. C. A. to members of the association and their friends as well as contributors to the building fund and the general public. There will be several addresses at the banquet after which the visitors will be given an opportunity to inspect the building. Through an error the Tribune last night said the price per plate for the banquet would be fifteen cents. Secretary Gran today announces that this is a mistake as tickets are being sold at a half dollar each.

ELKS TO RESUME PARTIES NOV. 11

The local lodge of Elks will resume their informal dancing parties for the season on Thursday night, November 11th, and will hold one every two weeks from that date during the winter, with the exception of Thanksgiving night. These dances will be for members and their friends, and the latter will be required to procure a card of admission from a member for each party. The committee has arranged for five pieces of Prof. Kreutz's orchestra, including drums and traps, which it is hoped will enliven the occasions. Club privileges will be extended to non-members on dance nights, and a nominal fee of seventy-five cents will be charged for each dance.

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CATARRH

S. S. S. cures Catarrh by removing the cause from the blood. It thoroughly purifies the circulation that there is nothing left to inflame and irritate the mucous linings of the body, which is the most prominent and dangerous effect of Catarrh. As long as the mucous membrane and tissues are kept in a state of inflammation and irritation by an impure and infected condition of the circulation, Catarrh will remain. Its disagreeable symptoms of ringing noises in the ears, mucous dripping back into the throat, headaches, watery eyes, difficult breathing, and even stomach disorders and weakened health, cannot be permanently relieved until the blood is purified. Local applications alone can have no real curative value, because such treatment does not reach the blood. Sprays, inhalations, lotions, etc., are valuable only for their cleansing and antiseptic effect, but if depended on alone Catarrh sufferers will find a cure impossible. Nothing equals S. S. S. for curing Catarrh. It goes down into the circulation, gets at the root of the trouble, and removes every particle of catarrhal matter from the blood and enriches this vital fluid so that instead of irritating the different mucous portions of the body, it nourishes them with rich, health-giving properties. Then the symptoms begin to pass away, and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

ADMINISTRATORS OF CARGILL ESTATE

Application has been filed in county court and special administrators have been appointed by County Judge John Brindley in the estate of the late W. W. Cargill.

In the petition for the appointment of special administrators, Ella F. Cargill, the widow, and W. S. Cargill, the petitioners, hold that Mr. Cargill was largely interested in corporations engaged in buying and selling lines of elevators, and various corporations engaged in manufacturing business and in the regular course of business. Said corporations borrowed large sums of money on the personal endorsement of the late W. W. Cargill, which practice was kept up until the time of his death, and must necessarily be continued at the present time.

Messrs. W. S. Cargill and John H. McMillan of Minneapolis were appointed special administrators and have filed bond in the sum of $500,000. They are authorized to transact all business pertaining to the estate, and to sign notes and make loans.

The petition places the value of Mr. Cargill's personal estate at $1,000,000, and his rentals and income from real estate at $50,000 annually.

Among Mr. Cargill's assets is insurance of one million dollars and one million dollars in three per cent government bonds. Mr. Cargill left no will.

HORROR OF GANGES GROWS TERRIBLE

CALCUTTA, Oct. 21.—Their story corroborated by the mute evidence of scores of twisted bodies floating down the broad Ganges to the sea, refugees from the storm swept territory in east Bengal arriving today tell tales of terrible disaster. Only a few worn out and exhausted natives have succeeded in reaching Calcutta. From their accounts it is estimated that between 1,000 and 2,000 perished in the tornado. The refugees describe the stricken territory as littered for miles with heaps of debris that were once light native houses. Scattered among the ruins and over the storm swept fields are scores of dead natives left where they died by the fleeing survivors. Every river in the storm zone is covered in many places with floating bodies swept into the stream by the floods resulting from the rains accompanying the storm. Even the approximate number of dead will never be known. The Anglo-Indian press is manifesting its usual want of interest in the catastrophe for the reason that few Europeans were known to be in the stricken district.

BAKER JUSTIFIES HOLDING OF TRUNK

H. Cohen, the traveling man who yesterday complained to Mayor Ori Sorenson and Chief of Police John B. Webber, that J. C. Hopkins, baggage man at the Stoddard hotel had refused to give up his baggage before he was paid 50 cents which Hopkins claimed was due him for previous visits, got no satisfaction out of the fight he put up. Last night he paid Mr. Hopkins the seventy five cents and took his trunk and departed.

Calvin F. Baker, manager of the hotel said today that he had made a personal investigation of the case, and was convinced that the salesman owed the bill, or he would not have permitted the hotel baggage man to hold the trunk. As it was, Mr. Hopkins acted with the knowledge of Mr. Baker and the hotel stood behind him in his effort to collect.

NEW POSSES SEEK THE BANK ROBBERS

MINOCQUA, Wis., Oct. 21.—Several new posses were sent out today to search for the bank robbers, five masked men, who robbed the State bank of Minocqua, fled and then held up the posse sent out to capture them. The robbers got upwards of $1,000 from the bank.

When the robbers fled the sheriff organized a large posse and started in pursuit. Late last night the posse surrounded the bandits at Hazelhurst in a clump of trees. The sheriff called upon them to surrender but instead of doing so they pushed five rifles through the foliage and "covered" the posse. The masked men emerged still covering the posse and backed the sheriff and his men into the middle of the street. The bandits then fled again before the startled posse could recover its composure.

Nothing had been heard from the posse or bandits at an early hour today.

LANDLADY'S NOSE DISMISSED ACTION

Court Finds She "Butted in" on the Affairs of the Family of Mr. J. Schwartzfeger

"He can go by the packing house where I am and twist weiners, and get nine dollars a week, Judge. He does not have to work in the candy factory for three and a half. I work by the packing house all week every day myself and get ten dollars and a half and he can earn just as much as me."

Thus spoke J. Schwartzfeger Tuesday in police court, while he was telling his troubles to Judge Edward Cronon. Schwartzfeger has an appendix, and is now paying his wife five dollars of his earnings for the support of herself and children, while he is boarding elsewhere. Yesterday he was brought into court as a witness against his son, Julius Schwartzfeger and Julius Beelow, who were charged by his landlady with using vile and abusive language. When the court found that the two men had visited the elder Schwartzfeger at his boarding house, in an effort to make him return home to his wife and family, and the landlady had "butted in" to the argument he dismissed the defendants.

The elder Schwartzfeger then told his tale of woe. He said the boy, who is as big and strong as his father refuses to work, and that he has secured several positions for him but he has always quit. The boy said he is working at present at the candy company. The father declared that work of that kind was not work, that he could make much more money if the boy kept the jobs he selected for him.

The court admonished the boy to stick to his employment and not to abuse his father in the future.

MILK SWINDLER IN JAIL HERE

F. L. Davis, accused of defrauding dairymen throughout the entire state, by a clever swindle which it is said he worked through the mails, is in town. Sheriff William Duncan has him in a cage at the county jail.

Davis was brought here Monday night by United States Marshalls and turned over to Jailer Brown for safe keeping until he can be tried in United States court now in session here. The sheriff was instructed to keep an eye on the prisoner and take no chances with him.

He has been placed in a cage at the jail and is not allowed even the liberty of the corridor. From time to time the turnkey drops round and passes the time of day with him.

Jailer Brown describes Davis as a smooth looking individual, rather undersized, but "just the kind of a fellow that looks like a swindler."

WOMAN FATALLY INJURED BY TEAM

VIROQUA, Wis., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—While doing her husband's bidding in regard to standing by his team, Mrs. Hans Hjetter, living 14 miles west of here, sustained injuries which will probably cause her death. The team was hitched to a load of hogs, which Mr. Hjetter was preparing to bring to Viroqua for market. Not being able to watch the team and load the animals at the same time, he called his wife to his assistance. As she stood there the horses started up and she was trodden under foot. One wheel passed over her abdomen, causing very serious injuries. Her recovery is believed impossible. She is fifty years of age.

Vernon County an Eden
Vernon county must indeed be a garden of Eden. Apple trees, raspberry bushes and pea vines are not satisfied with bearing one crop but strive to do double duty. John Severson of Soldiers Grove has a second crop of peas.

GIN FOR BACKACHE

Backache Means Kidneyache—Newly Perfected Prescription Given for Kidneys and Bladder

Gin, in some form, has been known as a kidney and bladder remedy for years. It is said, by excellent authority, that it reaches its highest efficiency as a remedy for weak or disordered kidneys and bladder when used in the following formula: "Six ounces good pure gin, one-half ounce Murax compound, one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu. These ingredients can be bought and mixed at home, or any good prescription druggist can put up the formula. For best results take one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day, after each meal."

Such symptoms as backache, rheumatic pains in the joints, soreness in hip or groin, frequent, scant or painful urination, highly-colored urine, dizziness, etc., should be attended to promptly, as Chronic rheumatism, Bright's disease and diabetes are apt to develop.

PRETTY LA CROSSE GIRLS IN PLAY

Without a doubt "Up and Down Broadway" to be given at the La Crosse theater Thursday night, October 28 for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless will be the leading social event of the year and La Crosse people are awaiting its production with much interest.

Mr. Donald MacDonald, well known to local audiences, and who has gained a name in outside productions, has entire charge of the benefit and rehearsals, under his supervision, are being held every afternoon and evening in the Guild Hall of the Christ Episcopal church.

The play itself has scored successes everywhere it has been produced and has played to packed houses in Madison, Duluth, Winona, Detroit, and other cities.

All proceeds are to be turned into the Home of the Friendless fund and many prominent society people have volunteered their services towards insuring the great reception which a benefit of this kind so justly deserves.

Over 100 of La Crosse's pretty girls will participate in the show which is a musical comedy of merit.

Only to previous bookings only one date could be secured at the La Crosse theater but if it meets with the enthusiastic approval that it has elsewhere efforts will undoubtedly be made to have it repeated.

GREAT REVIVAL IN BUSINESS COMING

Stupendous Orders for Railroad Locomotives and Rolling Stock Indicate Extensive Business

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 21.—That the revival of business and general confidence has taken a new grip on manufacturers and shippers is indicated here today in the orders that have been placed for cars and locomotives by railroads. Railroad men say that the great volume of business which has been booked by manufacturers will necessitate an outlay by the railroads for new equipment. Orders for cars and locomotives aggregating $8,650,000 have been placed within the last week.

The Erie and Norfolk and Western railroads have arranged for a total of 319 new locomotives at an approximate value of $4,650,000. The New York Central system and Baltimore and Ohio have placed orders here for 4,000 steel cars with an approximate value of $4,000,000. Orders for 100,000 steel cars and 1,000 locomotives to the latest orders.

The largest order for locomotives ever given at one time by a railroad became public knowledge today when it was learned that the Baltimore and Ohio will place orders for 250 engines of various types among different locomotive works over the country.

Railroad men expect the heaviest freight traffic in years, beginning the first of the year and all lines are placing orders for additional cars.

CURTISS HAS DOUBT OF EIFFEL STORY

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 21.—The noted American aviator, Glen H. Curtiss arrived in Cleveland from Detroit to visit auto factories and other manufacturing plants.

Curtiss was surprised by the performance of Count de Lambert in a Wright biplane in Paris Monday. He said that he doubted whether it had occurred as reported.

"This flight around Eiffel tower and about Paris at such a height is a marvelous exhibition," said Curtiss. "For it to be attempted by Count de Lambert, who is practically a novice at the game and who has not been noted for any daring, seems very improbable especially, as it was announced before that there was no prize to compete for. But, if it was accomplished, it was certainly a wonderful feat and brings great credit to the count."

BOWLERS TO MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

Six or Eight Club League Will Be Organized for Coming Winter's Sport

From 6 to 8 teams of bowlers will comprise the La Crosse league of bowlers this season, and most of them will be reorganized clubs from last year. New captains and officers will be chosen for the several clubs and all will be reorganized within a week to take up the work of the season.

This evening a meeting of all of the members of the local bowling association will be held at Hunt's alleys for the purpose of reorganizing for the season and to make disposition of the moneys left over from last year. There will be election of officers and a general discussion of the work for the coming season.

Owing to the fact that the International Bowling congress will convene at St. Paul Feb. 11, local bowlers are enthusiastic in the sport as delegates from the local association will be selected from those holding the highest scores for the season.

All games bowled by the local association will be rolled at Hunt's south side alleys.

DR. COOK WILL NOT STAKE ALL ON CLIMB

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 20.—"Are you willing to stand or fall in your position in the north pole controversy depending upon whether your records are found or not at the summit of Mount McKinley?" Dr. Cook was asked today by a United Press representative. "Why, no," he said, "I couldn't do that even though I am certain the McKinley records will be found at the summit. But my polar records must stand for themselves. They are proof absolute that I reached the pole."

To Clear Veracity "Then what purpose is your second ascent of Mount McKinley going to serve?"

Dr. Cook, who had been reclining at ease, was instantly alert.

"A malicious attack has been made upon my veracity," he said. "The journey to Mount McKinley will silence this attack forever."

"This expedition is one of two things I must do now," he continued after a moment's silence.

"And the other?"

"The instruments left at Etah, of course. I've got to prepare an expedition to recover them, another for Mount McKinley."

"What effect will Anthony Fiala's refusal to accompany your Mount McKinley expedition have?"

"Mr. Fiala might have taken off my hands the work of preparing the expedition," he replied. "Now I must attend to that work myself. I needed the time to get my polar observations into shape for the scientific investigations."

Fiala's Refusal Hampers Trip "But Mr. Fiala's refusal won't stop the expedition. On the contrary the equipping will be done in as short a time as if he had taken up the work himself."

"What will the expedition be like?"

"Numerically strong enough to assure the ascent of Mount McKinley." "What does this exploration mean to you?"

"It will cost between $15,000 and $20,000 to make the ascent," he answered.

"Hardships?"

The lines in Dr. Cook's face kinked into angles as his jaw set. He waited an instant before speaking.

"Yes," he said.

Refuses to Discuss "Hearing" Dr. Cook refused to discuss even the mechanical features of his "hearing," before the special committee of the Explorers' Club.

Dr. Cook announced on his return from Mount McKinley in 1906 that he had reached the summit. He is the only man that ever made such a claim. Since the polar controversy began Edward Barrill, Dr. Cook's guide in Alaska, has made affidavit that the doctor did not come within 14 miles of the summit. His affidavit has been supported by the testimony of Walter P. Miller, a Seattle photographer.

Because of this arrangement, the lectures given in St. Paul and Minneapolis will be the last on the present tour.

NEW UNION DEPOT FOR CHICAGO SOON

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Chicago is to have a new union depot to cost $25,000,000.

All that remains to be done before work starts is an agreement on the details by railroads which will participate in the construction of the railroads. These railroads now use the antiquated station as a terminal, the two Pennsylvania companies—the Pan Handle and the Ft. Wayne—the Burlington, Alton and Milwaukee.

This is the statement of Engineer McCree of the Pennsylvania lines.

McCree said the new depot proposition had been formally endorsed by the five railroads but that he could not give any definite idea of how soon the improvements would start.

"Yes, there was a time when I could hardly bear to look at myself in the glass," said a well known society beauty. "I was hideous and I knew it and my friends knew it, even if they said nothing to me."

"I don't care whether it's just a few stray hairs or a full fledged mustache, hair on a woman's face will spoil her beauty. That's all there is to that. I know. Of course I tried the electric needle and all the other remedies I ever heard of. And, of course, the hair came back. It always will with such remedies. They don't really kill the hair. They just burn it off the surface and stimulate the roots. Sometimes I just couldn't bear to face anybody with that horrible growth on my face and arms."

I was about to give up in despair, when some friend sent me a bottle of Elee-tro-la. I hadn't faith in the remedy before I used it, but it took just 1 treatment to convince me. The way that hair came off was a marvel and no matter how long I left the remedy on it would not burn or smart. That's the secret of its success. You can leave it on long enough to reach the roots and kill the hair and a cure with Elee-tro-la is a cure that lasts. See, my face is as soft and smooth, as a little child's and it's been months since I cured myself. If you don't believe this, just try Elee-tro-la and see."

We want every reader of this paper who is troubled with superfluous hair, to prove this sure remedy just as thousands of others affected with objectionable hair have done. If you want a permanent, lasting cure, not merely temporary relief, Elee-tro-la is what you should use.

All that is necessary to get a free trial bottle is to just fill out the coupon and send to us with a two-cent stamp to help cover cost of mailing. The regular sized bottle is $1.00 and your money will be refunded if Elee-tro-la does not do all we claim. We don't ask you to take our word for what Elee-tro-la will do. Fill out the Trial Coupon and mail with a two-cent stamp to-day.

FREE TREATMENT Fill in your name and address on dotted lines below and send to Ko-Ree-Tiv Co., 5105 State St., Chicago, Ill., enclosing a two-cent stamp to help cover mailing, and we will send at once a free trial bottle that will show you what Elee-tro-la will do for you.

A Poor Weak Woman

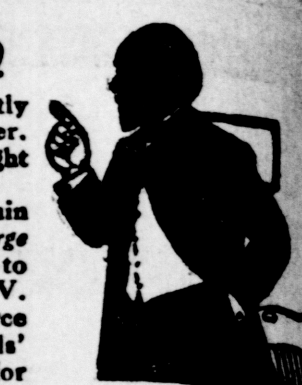

As she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most experienced medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for many years and has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

The many and varied symptoms of women's peculiar ailments are fully set forth in Plain English in the People's Medical Adviser (1008 pages), a newly revised and up-to-date Edition of which, cloth-bound, will be mailed free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address as above.

MRS. BATONYI TO GET HER DIVORCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Francis Work Burke Roche Batonyi will get her divorce from the Hungarian horseman and society whip. In justice O'Gorman's court today, the sealed verdict of the jury was rendered. The jury found the charges that Batonyi misconducted himself with Margaret Allen or Lilly Lawrence in the latter's apartments on Central Park west on Dec. 19, 1907, are true.

The jury held that the charges of misconduct with Lillian Brevante at the "Fencing girl" were not proven but the court ruled that the finding in the Allen case was sufficient.

RIVER STEAMER SINKS

GILLISPOPE, O., Oct. 21.—The steamer Sallie Marmet owned by the Marmet Coal company of Raymond City, W. Va., on its way from Cincinnati to the Kanawha with empties, struck a rock in the channel near Sciotoville Tuesday night and sank in shallow water. Divers from Cincinnati were sent for and the boat which is valued at $18,000 will be raised at once.

SOCIALIST SUES WILKIE FOR $25,000

S. secret service, Deputy U. S. Marshal Fred Lancaster and Jos. Priest of the secret service.

MAYORALTY SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Mr. Bannard, Republican candidate at left; Mr. Gaynor, Tammany candidate, and city hall in New York City at right

(By Special Correspondent) NEW YORK, CITY, N. Y.—The fight for mayoralty honors in Greater New York is always an interesting

spectacle. It was never more so than it is the present year. Tammany has its admirers and its critics. As a political machine it has no equal. The charges brought last week by Mr. Pierson against Tammany are of such a broad nature that they are sufficient to bring on a crisis in the present campaign which is really a fight between the Tammany supporters and those opposed to the gigantic organization.

The republicans have selected to lead the fight against Tammany a man little known to the political atmosphere of New York city, although he has always been a staunch republican and has served in minor capacities in the republican organization. Mr. Bannard is better known to Wall street and the business world than to the political leaders. He is a man of unusual ability, strength, courage, sterling integrity and common sense. He is a loyal son of Yale and only last week was announced his gift of $50,000 to this institution.

Mr. Bannard first attracted the attention of the financial world through his work in putting the Dolphin Jute mills of Patterson, N. J., on their feet. He was then called to the Continental Trust company, which for the two years of its existence had gone backward. He not only placed it on a proper basis, but gained for it and himself such a reputation that it was ex-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild retired from the New York Security and Trust company the directors of the latter were glad to merge it with the Continental under Bannard and his staff. Thus was formed the New York Trust company, of which he is still the head—one of the most substantial companies in the country.

During the active business career, Mr. Bannard has always found time for philanthropic work, not only giving his money, but his personal attention as well. He was one of the founders of the Charity Organization society. As a man he may be said to possess unusual appreciation of men and deeds rather than money and what it can bring. In accepting the nomination of the republicans he is sacrificing much of his present and future to what he considers the command of the people. But this is typical of the man. He thinks little of wealth except for the use to which it can be put. He is a lawyer by profession and most of his business life has been spent in reconstructing broken down enterprises.

Opposed to Mr. Bannard is Justice William J. Gaynor of the state supreme court, who is as opposite to Mr. Bannard as can be imagined. Gaynor is a man of unusual strength and earnestness, although it is charged that he is not always stable. He has been justice for nearly 15 years and during this time has made enemies on every side by his coldness and lack of tact. He is a fighter from the ground up, a man of strong convictions, but these convictions are quite as apt to turn toward the favoring of a gambler as toward the opposing of him.

Justice Gaynor a few months ago attracted attention through his attack on Chief of Police Bingham for keeping in the rogues' gallery the picture of an unconvicted prisoner. This led directly to the ousting of Bingham from the police department, although Bingham himself claims this was but the excuse for deposing him and that back of it all was the fact that he has been opposing Tammany.

Justice Gaynor has been mentioned annually for every office from president of the United States to mayor, but has refused to run except when he was comparatively sure of winning. Last year his nomination for vice president on the Bryan ticket was practically assured until opposition arose at the last moment, which led to the nomination of John W. Kern.

In person Gaynor is short, but well made. His beard, which he always keeps close trimmed, is now white. His eyes are the most remarkable part of his face. They are clear and searching and always aimed directly at you when you speak to him. He never looks down or sideways, and the frostiness of his manner makes the steady gaze of his eyes extremely disconcerting to visitors who are not sure of their ground.

HOME CURE FOR CATARRH SUFFERERS

A Simple Remedy That Gives Relief From a Common Ailment. (From the Guttenberg Press.) While there are a great many people who suffer from catarrh of the nose and throat all the time, this common ailment is more prevalent in Fall and Winter than at any other season of the year. Catarrh is an inflammation of the delicate membranes and is brought on by sudden changes in the weather, breathing very cold air or dust, getting the feet wet, etc.

Prof. Von Sternberg, a German specialist who has had unusual success in the treatment of nasal and throat diseases, recommends a solution of water and vintox. Get from your druggist an original package (2 ounces) of vintox and dissolve it in a pint of water. This should be sniffed up the nose once or twice daily when suffering from "cold in the head," or from chronic catarrh. When the throat or larynx is affected it should be used as a gargle. Vintox soothes and heals the inflammation and clears the passages.

"PINK EYE" HAS BROKEN OUT HERE

If the inner corner of your eyelid is sore, your eyes water and smart, and become swollen, red and irritable, you are in fashion. "Pink Eye" has broken out in La Crosse. This is the season of year when the disease is very prevalent and many are afflicted. The inner corner of the eyelids become inflamed, the eyes sore, and there is a tendency to shun the light. A local physician in speaking of the trouble said today that he had heard of no scientific name for the disease other than "pink eye." No one knows the cause of the disease, whether it is caused by dust, wind, or by vegetable particles in the air at this season, but the epidemic always recurs at this time of year. It is mildly contagious, but infection cannot be brought about except by direct contact, as through a towel, soap, or other similar methods. It is not serious the physician added, but can be cured in five or six days with ordinary home treatment. It neglected however, it may last from ten days to two weeks and affect both eyes.
